

The Kule Centre for Ukrainian and Canadian Folklore and FolkwaysAlive!

present a joint Folklore Lunch with

Victor Mishalow

Time:

Friday, October 2,
12:00 – 1:00 pm

Location: Campus,
Old Arts Building,
Arts 232

We are pleased to host Victor Mishalow, an Australian-born Ukrainian bandura player from Toronto. In addition to having mastered this uniquely Ukrainian instrument, Mr. Mishalow has also conducted extensive research about the bandura tradition. At the Folklore Lunch, he will share both his research and his musical talent.

Light refreshments will be provided. Please feel free to bring your lunch.

Please confirm your attendance with Lynnien Pawluk at lynnien.pawluk@ualberta.ca by September 28, 2009.

Mr. Mishalow's visit to Edmonton is co-sponsored by the Kule Centre for Ukrainian and Canadian Folklore and by the Canadian Institute of Ukrainian Studies.

On Thursday, October 1, 2009, at 7:00 PM Victor Mishalow will deliver a public lecture entitled "Hnat Khotkevych, the Kharkiv Bandura and the Re-establishment of a Neglected Playing Tradition." The lecture will take place in the Heritage Lounge, Athabasca Hall. On Friday, October 2, 2009, Mishalow will give a concert at the Ukrainian Youth Unity Centre, 9615-153 Avenue, 7:30 PM, presented by The Ukrainian Music Society of Alberta. Admission is by donation.
